ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP
TEACHING ASSISTANT PROGRAM

Overview
The Organizational Leadership Teaching Assistant Program provides an experiential learning opportunity for students interested in teaching and/or training. Completion of this course fulfills the experiential requirement for the Organizational Leadership Program in lieu of Community-Based Learning or the Internship. Teaching Assistants in the Organizational Leadership Program are unpaid, yet may earn 3 credit hours for enrollment in OL 4030: Undergraduate Teaching Assistant. TAs will be matched with courses only at the Dayton campus.

Eligibility
• Must have completed OL 2010, 3020, 3030, and 3040 by the semester or term the TA position begins
• Must have completed and earned an A or B in the OL course you are applying to TA for (for students currently enrolled in the class of interest, acceptance will be contingent upon the final course grade)
• Must have taken the OL course you are applying to TA for at the Dayton campus
• Must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 and OL GPA of 3.5 at the time of application

Selection Process
• Applications are due March 1 to TA for a Fall course, October 1 for Spring, and March 1 for Summer. Applications will be accepted after the due dates on a rolling basis until all slots are filled.
  • Complete and email the Teaching Assistant Application to Dr. Corey Seemiller at corey.seemiller@wright.edu.
  • Have faculty recommender complete and email the Faculty Recommendation form directly to Dr. Corey Seemiller at corey.seemiller@wright.edu. The recommendation must be from the faculty member from whom you took the class (or are taking the class) you would like to TA.
• Applicants meeting minimum eligibility who have been selected to move to the second round of selection will be contacted for an interview.
